

Jefferson County Child Care Association Advocate Application

The Advocate application and fee will cover memberships for the fiscal year July 1– June 30.
Please read and fill out the following information completely.

An advocate membership is available to any individual or organization that is an advocate of licensed family child care, an advocate for children in general and is interested in supporting the Association and its membership, upon application and payment of the annual fees. Advocate memberships will be reviewed by the Board of Directors upon application and may be approved or disallowed as provided for in Article IV, Section 4, Subsection C of JCCCA bylaws, or for failure to follow the Association bylaws. Advocate membership applications will be reviewed annually by the newly elected and appointed Board of Directors at the beginning of each new fiscal year.

Advocate membership benefits shall be limited to:

1. Free admission for one individual to all general membership meetings.
2. General membership meeting benefits.
3. Inclusion on the association mailing list to receive any Association publications.
4. Participation for one individual in any educational opportunity the Association may sponsor, under the same terms as offered to the voting membership.

Responsibilities of the advocate members will be the same as those listed in Article of III Section 4 of JCCCA bylaws.

Advocate members may not use their membership or the Association to endorse or promote themselves as individuals, organizations, associations, or agencies, without full knowledge and prior approval of the Association Board of Directors.
